

Message of Prayer from MARY, MOTHER AND QUEEN OF THE DIVINE WILL
For ALL WHO WISH TO DEEPEN THEIR SPIRITUAL LIFE
December 13, 2000 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, USA

(She says she wants me to tell you what I see. I see her bursting in light, but I see, like a concentrate point, where the light is just bursting forth from her belly. Her belly is swollen, and there is light radiating from it, and it engulfs her. I still see light around the Blessed Mother, but it's like, [I don't know how to describe you, Blessed Mother].

It's like she's a tunnel and at the end there's a blinding ray of light. That's all I could think of to explain it. She says she would now like to give her message on prayer, and it's a very important one.)

My dear little children,

I thank you for coming and for gathering with me and my Son in prayer.

I bless you and I bless your Rosaries,

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

My children, Christmas is a time when you have many spiritual and blessed objects in your homes.

Today's message is one of importance on prayer because I'm inviting you to look more clearly and closely at these objects that you have around your homes.

First of all, I wish to ask you to remove all objects that are not of Our Lord, idols of Buddha, anything that is not of God, things that may at the time seem to be just for looking at for pleasure, must now be removed and thrown away or disregarded at this time.

Pay attention to only those things which are holy and pure, and blessed.

I'm calling you in particular today to look at the holy pictures of me and My Son's birth to look at my statues that are by the altar, and my Son's statue that's on the altar.

My child, (She's telling me.) Look at what I'm about to show you. (She's shrinking. She's bursting in light and she's shrinking, and she's still shrinking and she's merging with the statue. The statue is now bursting in light! She says.)

My children, when you venerate a sacred image, it is sacred because I am there.

Even though I dwell within your souls, my people need a physical being to look at.

Therefore, these images are holy for that reason.

It gives you a likeness of me, your mother, and even my child, Jesus.

Venerate these images, especially at Christmas time, as a sign that our presence is truly among you.

These statues cannot hear or see, but should be a reminder that I see and hear everything, and so does my Son.

I dwell within my children's hearts, but somehow it seems better to remind them that statues can see and hear when they can't, than to tell them I am there with them all the time. It brings them joy to see a humanistic characteristic of me and My Son.

-more-

I bless these statues because our presence is in them.

I bless you all and everything that you have with you in hopes that you may be reminded of the blessings that are carried with the objects that you have.

It is a token and a reminder of what awaits you in heaven, and the spiritual blessings that can be achieved on earth, even now.

My children, again, these statues do not see or hear anything.

However, I see and hear everything, and so does my Son.

Be reminded of that, and be reminded that our presence is always with you.

(Now she's bursting in light and she's growing bigger. She says,)

This Christmas, I'd rather you venerate the images that you have in your homes, than to envy other images that you do not have.

Churches are one of the most glorious gifts that God gives you.

For in the churches hang pictures, icons, and even statues that bear good likenesses of me and my Son.

Pray! Pray! Pray!

And bring your objects, your statues, your Rosaries, your scapulars, your pictures, your paintings, your icons, everything you have.

Bring them up to the altar so that they may be blessed.

And I'm not talking about just this altar, but I'm talking about the altars that exist within your own church.

It is important that you have a priest bless every object in your home.

My message is simple, because I wish you to see that I am always among you, and so is my Son.

Copying and distribution of this message is permitted and encouraged as long as nothing is changed, added, or deleted.

Mary-prayer-12/13/00