

Message from ST. JOSEPH

For THE WORLD

July 1, 2001 5:30 pm at home through Chris Curtis, a visionary in Maryland, USA

My dear ones,

I am the Saint of all Saints. I am St. Joseph.

While I lived in this life, I became a model of purity of heart, living in great silence.

Today's world must learn the virtue of being silent.

Too many people speak things that they do mean and are hurting the souls of God's children.

My message for the world is simple.

It is this. Keep silent and pray.

Think about the words you say for words do hurt and offend God.

Go in peace, children of God Most High.

Ad Deum.
