

Message from JESUS OF MERCY

To THE WORLD

July 25, 2010 through Chris Curtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

My dear and beloved children of My Father's earth,

Today, Oh dear ones, do I come to encourage you to believe in the heart of God the Father. His most Sacred Heart is filled with love and mercy. Know that as you look at My heart, you see rays of blood and water gushing forth from it. Know also that these rays that I give through the Divine Mercy of My heart also exists within the Father's heart. You must realize that I am one with My Father, and that if these rays exist within Me, they also exist within the heart of the Father first.

I come to you to ask you to have devotion to the heart of the Father. In times of difficulty, in times of struggle, in times of need, He will be there. But you must call out to Him from the depths of your heart. He will give you His love, His mercy, the blood and the water from His heart to yours.

I stand between My Father and the whole of humanity as mediator. There is no other name to call upon the Father but the name of Jesus which is Me and to call Him by the merciful name of Father. If you show My father mercy by calling Him "Father", then He shall extend to you His mercy through His own heart and also through Mine. Therefore, today, I invite you and all the human race to take refuge in His heart.

Remember also, My little ones, that God is love and mercy itself. No hatred, no anger can exist in His heart. However, in order to reveal His mercy, sometimes justice must be given. Therefore, I ask you to accept whatever the Father and I send your way with grace and dignity. Pray for yourselves and for others. You do not need to look far to find your comfort. Rest in His heart. Rest in the Most Sacred Heart of God the Father which is love and mercy itself.

Also, I invite you to call upon Mary, not only as Mother of Mercy but also Mother of Divine Mercy. She's the Mediatrix of All Graces and Mercy. Through her I also extend My mercy to humanity. I lived in her for nine months. She held Me in her arms when I died, after I came down from the Cross. She is merciful because she has received My Divine Mercy. Call upon her as Mother of Divine Mercy, and you will see and know how much she loves you.

(I see Our Lady. She looks like our Mother of Mercy with the blue veil, the belt with the red and gold in it, only she's in the pose of Jesus as in the Divine Mercy. I see the cloud, her feet are bare, there's a star at the bottom of her dress, a white, beautiful star, a real one that twinkles and glows. Her right hand is up in blessing like Jesus, but she's pointing upwards with one finger, and I see a Rosary hanging from her right arm which is raised in blessing. Her other hand is touching her garment near the heart. I see rays of red and white pouring forth, and in the back of her, I see a door that is open, and Jesus is standing in it as the Divine Mercy with rays of light, red and white, coming out too. I see at the foot of Our Lady something written in gold. "Oh Mary, I trust in thee." The vision is fading. It's gone. Jesus is standing before me now, dressed in white garments. He says,) →

Like this it shall be. (That's all He says. Now He says.) Before my mother comes to you as Mother of Divine Mercy, she had to come to you as Mother of Mercy to make you fully understand where graces and mercy come from and how it flows through Me to her. Now that you know of this, this is the desire of My heart – to make her known and loved under the title of Mother of Divine Mercy.

I love you, and I bless you all. Though you may not completely understand or comprehend all that is being given today, I promise you, slowly everything will be revealed in the end according to My desires and wishes. I am easing you into true devotion to Mary, but you must go slow in order to absorb and understand everything I am giving to you.

I bless you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. Now I shall depart to My Father who has sent Me to be here in an ever special way. As I depart, I shall bless you again. And know that I will be with you always in your trials and sufferings. Now go, go in My peace, in the name of the Father which has sent Me here to you, in the name of the Son which I am, and in the name of the Holy Spirit which I and My father continue to give to you, Amen. (He's backing into a door of light. The door of light remains on a cloud. It looks like the door is shutting. It's still shutting. It's gone.)
