

Message from MARY, MOTHER AND QUEEN OF THE DIVINE WILL
To THE WORLD and THE AMERICAS
June 13, 2002 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

My dear little children, praise be Jesus!

My dear children, today I call you and the whole world to surrender to the title of Our Lady of All Graces. Through this title I am giving my children graces and I am calling them to surrender to the graces that I am giving them. Through this title there is mercy, and there is love, and there is joy, and there is peace. It is only through the graces of God that I am giving to you at this time that the world will find these virtues and live in peace. The world wants peace. The world wants joy, but it is far from it. The only way that it will obtain this joy and peace and love and mercy is seeking me, their mother, through the title of Our Lady of All Graces. I pour forth such graces upon the world, and many of my children are neglecting and abusing them. These graces are gifts from God to encourage you on your way to salvation and to give you a glimpse of the joy that awaits you here in Heaven. Be forewarned, dear little children, if you continue to abuse my graces that I am shedding and giving to you at this time, they will be taken away, not by my means, but by God's justice. God's grace is love and mercy and justice as well. The world needs to know that they are abusing me, their mother, and that my Immaculate Heart is still weeping with tears of blood for them to amend their ways.

The time is coming when every man, woman, and child will stand before God and will have a glimpse of their souls. In the presence of God and in His power, they will be judged. Though the judgment shall be short, it shall be, and have, a lasting impression on all the world. I am warning you, little children, that the time is soon coming when you will see yourselves in the light of God's justice. Pray and be prepared. Cleanse your souls and return to a more loving state of prayer. Pray from your heart, dear children, not from your lips.

I have also come to warn the United States that America needs to return to God! The sins of the United States are grave and people continue to abuse God's mercy and my graces. Pray and make more acts of reparation to console the heart of God and me, your loving mother. It is only through the graces that I am giving to you at this time that you will be united with me in Heaven and find true joy and peace. My message for America is, stop running from yourselves. Embrace the cross that God has given to you and realize also, some of the crosses that you are carrying in the United States, you have made for yourselves and yourselves alone. Do not run from the cross, but embrace it. There you will find redemption and you will find salvation, the Living Sacrifice laid down before you. You are called to participate in it. Oh, how many will run away from it? How many will embrace it? Your choice, your call, is now.

I will leave a sign in the end to prove my visitations here on earth. But until that time, I call you to pray, fast, and love one another with the love and graces that I have given to you. Seek not new visions. Seek not new places where I have appeared. Seek not new visionaries. Seek after me, your mother through heartfelt prayer, and then you shall return to God. I point you to Jesus always. He is first. Embrace your crosses, and then you shall embrace my Son and me, your mother who stands at the foot of the Cross weeping, for your joy and my joy, that you return to God.

I bless you, my dear little children, with my motherly love and with the Sign of the Cross. As I make the Sign of the Cross, I shall bless you and everything that's in this room, everything that's on the altar, by the altar, near the altar. Everything in this room and you yourselves I am blessing when I make the Sign of the Cross, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Make the Sign of the Cross often as an act of your faith and trust in my Son's Cross and your salvation. And please know now that as I make the Sign of the Cross again, I shall depart. I shall depart, yet I will remain with you always in a special way when, and especially when, you all pray. Please know also that I do not leave this place. Even though you may not see me here, I am still present. (She's shrinking. She says,) I am present in this statue and in this home whenever the faithful are gathered in prayer. (She's making the Sign of the Cross and she says she will depart.) Thank you for having responded to my call. Go in the great peace, love and mercy of God Most High. Ad Deum
