

Message from MARY, MOTHER AND QUEEN OF THE DIVINE WILL
To THE WORLD

December 13, 2003 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

(I see Our Lady. She's dressed in white, but she has a gold crown on her head and she's big. Her stomach is full. She says,)

Praised be Jesus!

My dear little children,

I come today from Heaven to ask you to pray. I come to invite you and encourage you to not give up on God or my Son, your Savior, Jesus.

My dear little ones, today I wish to talk about the suffering of my Son. The suffering of my Son runs deep. The reason why His suffering is deep is because He loves so much. Those who love much, feel the pain of suffering. My Son suffers to call you back to God and to Himself. My son suffers because no one wishes to believe and hear the messages that God has graced you with. No one can understand the messages I give unless they read and pray and believe firmly. Even after all these years, 2,000 years, my Son is still suffering because of the sins of humanity and because of the lack of prayer, penance, and sacrifices, and also for the lack of love.

This Christmas season I wish to draw you closer to the suffering Jesus and to love. It is only in love that you are united to Jesus. It is through suffering, His suffering, that He redeemed the world. I invite you to take part in His suffering through your small, personal sacrifices. Suffering is not a punishment from God, but is an act of love. Some suffering is due because of sin, and some suffering is due partly because He wishes to draw you closer to Himself. There are also times in which suffering can be done away with through prayers and personal sacrifices. That is why I call you day after day to sacrificing through prayer from the heart.

I love you, little ones, and I wish you to know that Jesus would have done anything at all cost to save the ones He loves. Even now in this new millennium, he wishes to save you. He sends these messages through me and special graces he assigns to call you back to Himself. We are in a decade of great suffering.

This is a year of the martyrs. Personal sacrifices are greatly received and taken to Jesus when you fully offer up these sacrifices. He's inviting you to draw all souls closer to Him in your personal sacrifices and prayers.

My Son, even today, will suffer anything, even ridicule, hatred, and blasphemy against Him if it is the means to call you back to Himself. He will suffer anything and all. However, there is also a time in which suffering can only mete you so much graces. Without love, you will not achieve the other half. That is why I call you always first to love God the Creator and my Son who suffered that humanity might be saved.

The redemption started with His holy conception, and if you wish to go back further and honor me as Co-redemptrix and Mediatrix of all Graces, that started during my conception. Through me, God's plan for redemption was fulfilled because I said "yes" to His Word and to what He asked of me.

Today you are asked to make the same choice, to decide for God, or to run in the opposite direction and face the dangers of the consequences of your own choices, which will, without doubt, bring hunger, famine, droughts, floods, hurricanes, earthquakes, tornadoes, and every inhuman, human, and natural disaster you can think of. Look upon these signs as a sign to return to God. He suffers because He loves you. If you can look at the Cross and realize that he loves you even in that horrible scene, then know that you are saved because you believe and you love Him who is your Savior.

Pray for the conversion of sinners so that even in this time, they yet still may be saved. I bless you, my little ones, and I take your petitions into my Most Immaculate Heart, and I bless you with the Sign of the Cross which is the sign of your redemption, mercy, love, and peace. In the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen

I shall bless you again, and then I shall depart. I shall depart, but I shall always be with you and each one of you when you pray and in your prayers. And I shall bless everything that you have with you and all the statues and holy objects on the altar. I shall also give a special blessing afterwards. (She's making the Sign of the Cross now.) Know that my Immaculate Heart remains always with you. Thank you for having responded to my call. Go, my dear little angels, in the great peace and mercy of God.

(There's a beautiful bright light up. Now she's holding the infant Jesus, the baby, the really, really real baby. There's light all around the baby. I see a white line going up, down, up again, down again. It's an M. There's a white line going through the M sorta that way. Ya,, there it is, and then there's another line going up. The line is touching the ceiling, and now there's another line, but it's not, it's extending out like this in both directions –it's the Cross! Oh, it's the Miraculous Medal thing, the sign on the back! It's there. It's glowing in light, and now the light's fading. I guess that's the blessing)
