

Message from MARY, MOTHER AND QUEEN OF THE DIVINE WILL
To THE WORLD

November 24, 2003 through Chris Curtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

Praised be Jesus!

My dear little children,

I call you today to be attentive to my words. This is the time of grace and I am with you, even in your hardships. However, little ones, your hardships are also blessings and graces and crosses given to you by the Creator for your spiritual growth and also for your purification. Little ones, God loves you so very much and so do I!

Your prayers please me and my Son very much. However, it is necessary that all of you in your life undergo a time of spiritual darkness and a time of purification. It is the dark night of the soul as St. Theresa of Avila talked about. God is calling you to love and to give purely from yourself without requesting and receiving anything. Can you still love the Creator and my Son Jesus with all your heart even when no graces are given to you? Can you still love with all your heart even when you feel there is no one there to love you? Remember St. Francis and his prayer. "Let me love instead of be loved." Can you love God that much, my little ones, that despite everything you can continue to persevere and pray with all your heart?

It is in the darkness that there is great purification and light. I am not talking about the darkness, little ones, that comes from Satan but the darkness of the soul that comes when you feel abandoned by God. Although God never leaves you, it is necessary, little ones, to enter in this dark abandonment in order to be purified and in order to receive the graces of purity of heart and true love which can only come from God.

Remember also, little children, the agony of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane and also remember His last agony on the Cross and His bitter passion. Almost toward the last breath of my Son, he felt abandoned by God for did He not cry out, "My God, My God, why have you forsaken Me?" God did not abandon Jesus my Son, and He will not abandon you although He sometimes allows you to feel abandoned in order to purify you, refine you, give you more graces and draw you closer to Himself.

This darkness, little ones, is not a punishment for sins, but it is rather a natural outcome in order to see whether you will still remain faithful to God. Will you love Him, my little ones, with all your heart regardless of whether you feel He loves you or not? That is the question, and only you, my little ones, can answer that. If you can love God with all your heart and soul even in the midst of being in the dark night, then God's love that He gives to you and that you have for Him will permeate your being, and you will be purified and be saintly and made holy and perfect in His eyes.

Enter the dark night, my little ones, and be not afraid for He is with you. If you seek help and protection and go to the Eucharist, for He is there, receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and you will know that He loves you, but you must continue to brave the storm and be willing to sacrifice yourself, even as He has, for love of you.

My dear little children, although you do not want to face this, this is a fact. If you truly love Jesus, you will all meet with the same fate, and that is the crucifixion and death. But there is glory in the resurrection and hope for a new tomorrow. Continue to pray and work for this alone.

My little ones, I know that I have given to you many words today and that many of them are mystical and you may have trouble understanding them, but please know that God is with you. Read this message and live this message. Be not afraid of God's darkness because in His darkness of purification is great light. Be afraid of Satan and his darkness where no light penetrates.

I bless you, my little ones, and I take your petitions again into my most loving and Immaculate Heart and I will present all of your petitions before the throne of my Son, my beloved Son, Jesus Christ. And I bless you and everything you have with you and everything that's on the altar and by the altar with the Sign of the Cross which is your peace, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. I love you, my little ones, and I thank you for having responded to my call. Go in the peace of God.
