

Message from JESUS OF MERCY

To THE WORLD

August 13, 2004 through Chris Curtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

My dear and beloved children of My Father's earth,

My dear ones, I call you today to prayer, fasting, and reconciliation with God your Father through Me. Realize, my little ones, that My Cross stands before you burning with hope, light, love, and truth. If you fail to go through Me to the Cross, you will never reach Me or My merciful love.

Reparation to God My Father is required but only through the act of merciful love. You will never be able to obtain merciful love without going through My Cross. My Cross is mercy. My Cross is love. If you fail to embrace My Cross, then I tell you in truth, my dear ones, you fail to embrace Me. The world now is running from the Cross. It does not wish to embrace suffering because it does not understand what suffering truly is, or the act of suffering. The act of suffering, when joined with My Cross, is a way to redeem souls. If you wish to join Me in this act of redeeming souls, I encourage you and even urge you to come to the Cross and pray frequently, asking for forgiveness, pardon, and peace for your fellow men.

Make reparation by sacrificing your day and by reciting always, "Oh, My Jesus, it is for your love, for the conversion of sinners, and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary." When you begin to realize that I love you and that I am calling you to make reparation in love, then you will understand the mystery of the Cross. The biggest concern that I have is when the Cross is wasted. Do not let your suffering, my dear little ones, be wasted, because every cross and pain that is united to Me is not wasted but is blessed and also brings forth holiness and peace.

My beloved little ones, I am your Jesus of Mercy, and I call you to make reparation to God My Father through My Cross. Join your suffering and your crosses with My Cross, and together we will make history by joining all the crosses of the world to Mine, and God the Father will grant pardon and peace to the whole world. Let not My Cross and My death be in vain. For every one who rejects the Cross, my death is in vain, but for everyone who embraces My Cross, My death is not in vain but leads to Heaven, peace, and pardon of all sins.

I love you, My dear little ones, and I urge you to look for Me always in the Blessed Sacrament because there you will find that the memorial of My Sacrifice continues to be poured out upon all men. My Cross is before you in the Mass. My Cross is before you in your daily lives. Whether you choose to embrace My Cross or not, is your choice. I tell you in truth, though, if you reject My Cross, then you reject life and you will perish.

I love you, little ones, and I bless you in My name, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. My dear little ones, I bless you again, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. And realize that I give you peace. Bask in My peace. Live in My peace. Shelter My peace through prayer and love for one another. Thank you.
