

Message from MOTHER OF THE WORD

For THE WORLD

November 24, 2004 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

I am Mother of the Word.

My dear little children, praised be Jesus!

My dear children, today I come under the title of Mother of the Word to invite you to live His Word and to live in His truth. Little children, as I came in Kibeho, Rwanda, I come here to you now and I ask you for prayers, penance, and sacrifices.

My little children, my motherly Immaculate Heart is still suffering for Rwanda and for the whole nation of Africa. Even today the voices of the dead still echo in my heart and I cry and look for people to solace me and comfort me. Offer me your hearts and help heal my wounds. Dear children, I am blessing the whole nation of Rwanda and Africa and I bless everyone who desires to pray for them.

Little children, one of the most important apparitions that God has allowed me ever to appear is in Rwanda, even more so than Medjugorje. I allowed myself to appear 24 hours a day every day for several years. I performed signs and wonders so that men may awaken to their faith and repent. Today I echo the same call. Awaken your faith, little children, through the Mass, Eucharistic Adoration and through living His Word, and through prayer. Do not think that evils will not fall on this country, because they will if you do not repent and amend your ways. It was selfishness, lack of charity and humility, and lack of love which caused the war in Rwanda. If they would have filled their hearts with love from my Son and me, and humility instead of power and hate, the nation could have avoided the slaughter that happened.

But your nation is not much different, dear children, in honesty and all due respect. There are killings and murders of every kind. To name a few, there are killings among the old, the young, the newly conceived life, those who are crippled, those who have no hope. My little children, the only way to bring hope, peace, love, and God's mercy down upon you is through prayer, sacrifice and penance.

Little children, I desire all my children to be free, but they cannot be free without knowing the truth of God's Word and living in it. Humble yourselves, dear children, before God and He will make you perfect, but you must be willing to be a vessel of His mercy and be humble, loving, and charitable. It is only when one is charitable that one obtains the virtue of loving unconditionally. Seek the virtue of being charitable and be thankful for the graces God has given to you.

I am sad to say from my sorrowful, motherly, Immaculate Heart that as the year draws to a close and as the new year dawns, you will continue to see more definite outlines of poor and rich people. There will be no more middle ground. There will no longer be a middle class. You will either be poor or you will be rich. This is happening now as we speak and this will continue to occur. It is only when one is humble and one seeks poverty that one knows what truly is important, and that is seeking God. I call you to turn away from all material things and to seek with your whole heart in prayer to God. → Please, dear children, the more you have, the more God is asking of you. Do not become selfish. Do not become cold and lax in your duty towards God and in your duty towards one another. Love one another and share the gift of faith with everyone, and be charitable to the poor and the needy and the ignorant. You are called to love unconditionally, no matter what circumstances lie ahead in your future, or those you serve. Do not judge those whom you may think may be indifferent, but continue to pray and persevere.

The reason why I appear under this title of Mother of the Word, as in my appearances in Rwanda, to you today is to echo the same message that I gave then. If you do not amend your ways and pray from your hearts, and return to true faith in Christ, you will have more hardships to suffer, and your souls will be lost. Please, dear children, suffering is only a key to connect you to God, but you must bear your sufferings and continue to pray and persevere.

I wish with all my heart that I could have stopped the slaughter that happened in Rwanda, and I wish that I could stop the sufferings that may befall your country, but only God can stop what is to come. You must turn to Him and live by His laws and His ordinances. Please, dear children, if you do not, your nation can suffer a third world war. However, in the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph, and my love and mercy shall not only save your nation but also the whole nation of Africa. Towards the end Africa will be a peaceful nation, and towards the end Russia shall be a peaceful nation, and towards the end your nation shall be a peaceful nation, and towards the end China will be destroyed. Pray, pray, pray! I love you, dear children, and invite you to continue to pray for all of Africa and to pray for peace for the whole world.

(I see Our Lady. There's a globe supported in her right hand. She's pointing on the globe to the nation of Africa. She's holding it up towards her heart, her chest. There are rays coming down from her Immaculate Heart onto the nation of Africa. And the rays are spreading through the whole world. She says,)

I bless this day the whole nation of Africa and I consecrate it to my Immaculate Heart, and I ask you to pray that everyone may have peace. I am blessing the whole world through the rays of my Immaculate Heart.

(What I see is the nation of Africa and it's all glowing in light. All I can see is the outline, but I see the whole world and the light is going like a spill or something that is engulfing the other nations around it, like Germany and France. It's like a spill so it's working all the way up through Russia, and now I see the Americas, Canada. The whole world now is glowing in light, just bursting in light. She says,)

Now I shall bless you, my dear little children, and I shall depart. I shall depart, my dear little children, but I shall always be with you when, and especially when, you all pray, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Now I shall make the Sign of the Cross again and I shall depart, but I shall always be with you. As I depart I shall bless everything that is on the altar, by the altar, near the altar, under the altar. Everything in this room and everything you have with you, I am blessing, have blessed, and will bless again, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. Remember, my dear children, even in times of difficulty and pain, as long as you live His Word, you will have joy and comfort in times of sorrow and in times of pain. Continue to live His Word and I and my Son will always be near. It is through His Word that you shall have peace. Hence is my title, Mother of the Word. (She's blessing us again, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. Oh, she's not going to depart quite yet because I forgot I have to tell everybody what she looks like. She has a crown of twelve blue stars, and she's wearing a long white veil and it's flowing all the way down to her feet like Our Lady of Fatima. She has dark colored skin with dark eyes, but there's a glow around her whole body and her face, and she has the most beautiful features. Her dress has no straps. It's like a white towel wrapped around her, flowing all the way down [le pagne or kikwembe] and she's on a cloud and she has a Rosary again of mother of pearl and a gold chain and gold Cross, and she's just so beautiful!)

Thank you for having responded to my call. Go, my dear little ones, in the great peace, joy, and love of God Most High. Ad Deum.
