

Message from OUR LADY, MOTHER OF MERCY

To THE WORLD

August 13, 2004 (second message) through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

My dear little children, praised be Jesus!

My dear children, I come today from Heaven to ask you to amend your ways. Little children, I have told you before that you are standing on the threshold of a new age and a new time. There are three paths before you, my little ones. One leads to Satan. One leads to your will which eventually leads to hell and to Satan, and the third one leads to God and to peace.

My little ones, now is the time to make your choice which path humanity will take. I urge you at this time to choose which path that you will take. Right now God the Father is deeply concerned about humanity and which way it is going, for at this crucial time in history it is not going forward down any path. God would prefer you to either choose the one that leads to Satan, your will, or His. But you, my dear children, are not choosing any and this is causing great concern to God the Father because as I said in the previous messages, "He will not allow you to continue on the path that you are on." Therefore, little children, awake from your slumber and realize that now is the time to choose the path that you will take. If you continue to not choose any path, little children, God the Father will force you to choose one.

This is a very serious message, my little ones, because you are not choosing which direction you are going, and you cannot stay on the path that you are on. God the Father is merciful and He loves you infinitely, but it is out of His merciful love that He must force you to move on, to choose one of the paths that are before you. I tell you in truth, if you choose the one that leads to Satan, it will be rocky and there are scorpions and serpents that are waiting to bite you, and you will fall.

If you choose the path that is in the middle ground, the middle path, you will choose your own will. In this path you will find nothing but rocky hills and eventually a steep precipice which you yourself must throw yourself down and climb up again in order to enter the Era of Peace. This path will lead to destruction but ultimately to peace, as God the Father has pointed out.

If you choose peace now, God the Father will usher in an era of holiness and beauty, and the Church will be revived and blossom, and the Church and its followers will flourish throughout all the countries and civilizations throughout this world. But you are not choosing any path, my little ones. Instead you remain silent and you remain on the same path that you have been on for the past 2000 years.

I love you, dear little children, and I do not wish God to force you, but if you do not heed this warning, you will be forced and I will tell you in truth, He will force you and you will be punished because you are not making the decision to move on as He so desires. Now is the time for peace and prayer and to make the decision wisely.

God loves you, little children, and it is because of this love that He is asking you to move forward. This is the warning for all the world because if you do not move forward, God will chastise you where you are. He will send floods, hurricanes, droughts, natural disasters of every kind. Human disasters of every kind will also grip you. Many people will experience great devastations of hurricanes, tornadoes, earthquakes, and there will be many fires in the West Coast started by people. Little children, now is the time for prayer and fasting and to return to God. If you do not, you will be chastised again.

Please, move forward. Realize that I love you and that I am your Mother of Mercy, but also realize that I am only the mother of God and that even though I can intercede on your behalf, it is God who eventually decides these things and not me.

I love you, little children, and I am praying for you, but you have the opportunity now to create a new world, one of peace, hope, love, and mercy. Do not refuse this time and do not refuse the options that are before you. Choose wisely, but do choose, and choose quickly.

I love you, little children, and I am praying for you. Let this urgent message be echoed throughout the world that this is a very serious warning for the world to choose which path it will go on. Either way, in the end my Immaculate Heart will triumph and God the Father will enlighten and save your souls. So in the end, no one will be lost but those who freely give themselves to Satan.

I love you, little children, and I bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Please take this message seriously and realize that the choices that you make today will determine where you will be and where you will go tomorrow. Bless you, my little ones, bless you. Thank you for responding to my call. Go, my dear little children, in the great peace, love, and mercy of God Most High. Ad Deum
