

Message from MARY, MOTHER AND QUEEN OF THE DIVINE WILL
To THE WORLD

April 13, 2005 through Chris Curtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

My dear little children, I am Mary, Mother and Queen of the Divine Will.

My dear little children, praised be Jesus!

My dear children, today I come with the final message and lesson on the Divine Will. I desire you to know that in order to live in the Divine Will, you must make many sacrifices. Sacrifice your life for God's Divine Will to live in you. You do this, little children, by becoming small, humble, loving, and seeking to be in union with God all the time. My Son has already told you where you can find union with Him, at Mass, during Benediction, even just praying before the Tabernacle. You can find union with my Son there and also at the foot of the Cross.

Little children, give to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit your sufferings, and He will give you the grace of living in His Divine Will. You must sacrifice your life in order to live in His Divine Will, becoming nothing and accepting all crosses that He gives to you. (Our Lady looks sad.) In order to truly live in the Divine Will, dear children, you must sacrifice your life and live for God. You must exchange your suffering for His Will. This is the act of sacrifice that He demands, and this is the same sacrifice that my Son makes on the Cross, and as I continue to make today.

Sacrifice your life and your suffering in exchange for His Will, and you will receive His peace and His consolation. You cannot enter into the Divine Will without suffering. There is no other way. Suffering leads your soul to purification, and it provides a clean resting place, dear little ones, for my Son to dwell. That is why I point you to Jesus and ask you to offer up your sufferings for His Will. This is the most pleasing of all sacrifices because once you are purified, He can dwell within you all the time, and the union of God will always be there in your heart. And in that union, you will receive the gift of living in the Most and Holy Divine Will of God.

How much, dear children, do you love me? How much do you love God? It is time to suffer for His glory, for His love, for my love, and for His will. Suffer and receive the gift of His Will and receive the gift of life. Refuse to suffer and you will receive very little. I love you and I bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Now as I make the Sign of the Cross again, I shall depart. I shall depart, dear children, but remain always with you when, and especially when, you pray. And know that I bless everything that is here, on the altar, by the altar, under the altar, near the altar. Everything in this room, including you yourselves, I have blessed and will bless again, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Know, little children, that by the sacrifice of your suffering and your lives, in simplicity, you will live the gospel of the Divine Will. Thank you, my dear ones, for lovingly responding to my call. Go in the great peace, love, and mercy of God Most High. Ad Deum, or to God.
