

Message from MOTHER OF MERCY

To THE WORLD

December 13, 2005 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

My dear little children, praised be Jesus!

My dear children, I know how sad it is for you that Jesus will not be coming again until April, but know that He is always with you, and then when you are sad and you are lonely, sing and pray! Pray, pray, pray, and sing to the Lord. When you can be joyful, even in your sorrows, and praise the Lord, God fills you with His love and His mercy, and your heart begins to melt and overflow with joy. I desire that your hearts be joyful, even in your sadness. Praise Him! Praise and sing to Him even when you are sad, lonely or depressed. God's graces will come upon you, and joy, His joy, will be your gift. This is my advice, not just for today but for always. When you are sad, sing joyfully unto Him, and His joy shall be your joy. Praise Him with your heart. Praise Him!

Also, dear children, I desire to tell you that God loves you just the way you are. He does not particularly like the fact that you live in sin, but He still loves you. You're His creation and a unique individual. That is why He loves you for who you are. He loves you despite your many faults. He loves you because you are my children and you are redeemed by Jesus.

I call you in His love to love others. In order to practice mercy, dear children, you must first love with all your heart. Let love be the guiding force that leads you to mercy. Never speak ill of anyone. Never judge, but forgive. If you love with all your heart, you will be able to forgive. And forgiving in itself is also an act of mercy. Humble yourselves before God. He will teach you how to love. Don't love just Jesus but love all people. See Jesus dwelling within each one and realize even those who are far away from God are His creations. Therefore, love and forgive. Jesus loves you and has redeemed you because of His great love and mercy. In order to have mercy like Jesus, you must first love, and in order to love, you must humble yourselves.

Pray a great deal and do not dwell on your problems but let God solve them. In prayer, you will come to know the great joy of Heaven, and you will be able to understand that prayer is also a protection against evil behavior and sinful situations. I advise you to be wise in your actions. Where there is sin, I do not desire you to dwell, for it may cause you to commit sin also. Love others and pray that their sins will be forgiven by Jesus, but do not involve yourself in their affairs. Instead, pray from afar and let God judge and love them. Love with all your heart.

Also, I desire to tell you that as much as God loves you, He is not (She's pausing. She's smiling. She's laughing.) a wishmaster. He knows how much you suffer and He knows that you have prayers that you desire to be answered. God desires you to pray for what you need. Jesus will be with you in your suffering, and He will grant you your request only, only if it is beneficial for your soul. For some it is necessary that they suffer for awhile before Jesus answers their prayers so that their hearts may be purified and that they may accept the answer that Jesus gives them.

Dear children, Jesus loves you and will give to you what you need, not necessarily what you want. In times of difficulty, He and I will be there. Pray and realize that a lot of things that you pray for in prayer aren't important. The most important, dear children, is your faith. Pray for the gift of greater faith and know that Jesus is always with you. I too, like Jesus, am always with you and see everything, even your sinful behavior. But yet, you are my children and I am your mother and I forgive easily. I am your Mother of Mercy.

Look, look at my feet. This is one of the most profound visions that you will ever know, for in many apparitions I appear on a cloud but my feet are never seen. In this apparition my feet are seen on the cloud. I walked the earth like you do. I suffered the way you do. I was human like you are human. I desire you also through this painting and through my coming here to venerate my feet. My feet walked where you walk, suffered where you suffer. Jesus desires that you venerate my feet as a gift of humility and mercy. Those who walk my way and listen to my messages and live them, walk the road to Heaven. And yet, the road to Heaven is narrow and rocky, but those who walk my walk and walk my way, walk the road to Heaven.

In the old days, women used to clean the feet of their husbands as an act of veneration and love. This act today should still be done. My feet, which are immaculate, will lead you to Heaven if you follow closely behind me, walk with me, and love my Son. And now, as an act of love, I desire to show you how I love you. (And there's a cloud. She's moving on a cloud. She's right there on the cloud, and now she's descending. The cloud is right there. The cloud is parting. Her feet are so small that she can put both her feet in that round thing. [A circle in the middle of a star which marks the place her feet touched the floor on March 13, 2005] This is holy ground, dear children. I desire that when a place is holy that you remove your shoes, for this is holy ground. Let this also be a lesson when you are in any apparition site, remove your shoes if you can, but I advise, only when it's warm. Know that this is holy ground. (Her hand is out, only one because she's holding the Child Jesus. There are rays of light streaming down to where her feet are. Now the light is gone and the cloud is slowly covering her feet. Now she's rising. She's still rising. She's coming towards me. She smiles and she says,)

Walk my way. My way is the same as Jesus'. I love you, dear children, and I take your petitions into my heart, and I will present them to my Son whom I lovingly hold in my arms and also to the throne of God the Father. I bless you, dear children, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Also know that as I make the Sign of the Cross again, I shall depart. I shall depart, dear children, but I shall always remain with you in a special way when, and especially when, you pray. Also, as I make the Sign of the Cross again, I shall bless you and all that's on the altar, by the altar, under the altar, near the altar, everything in this room including you yourselves, I am blessing and have blessed and will bless again with my Son whom I lovingly hold in my arms, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. Thank you for responding to my call. Now go in the great love, peace, and mercy of God Most High. Ad Deum.
