

Message from OUR MOTHER OF MERCY on her feast day
To THE WORLD
May 25, 2005 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

My dear children, I desire you to know how very happy I am on this day. You have made me so very happy! Little children, how I love you. I hold in my arms, the Child Jesus and He and I desire to bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

I am so joyful, dear children, that I am crying with joy. Thank you, thank you, thank you for loving me, for loving and honoring my Son, and for responding to my call and invitation of love and mercy. Bless you, my little ones, bless you. Thank you.

I desire very much that the chaplet be sung. I desire that people pray from their hearts. Singing and praying, both are good and I desire them both and so does my Son and we bless you for your efforts in prayer. And now, my special message as Mother of Mercy that I wish to give you today is:

My dear little children, praised be Jesus!
My dear children, I am your Mother of Mercy, and I wish to call you to Jesus and to lead you to His way of holiness. Therefore, little children, do I wish to say to you all, to those who are sinners, and to those who are far away from my heart, I am your mother and there is nothing that you can do, or ever will do in your life, that will make me stop loving you.

Oh, my little ones, God gave me to you at the foot of Jesus' Cross. I am your mother in every way. I desire to call the sinners to repentance and to return to God. For all sinners I say, I am your mother and I love you, even when you are far away from my heart and my Son. I call to you and I ask you to surrender to your mother's love. I will lead you to Jesus if only you will take the first steps and pray to me. Pray, for I am, my little ones, tireless and I hear your prayers in the day and at night. Twenty-four/seven, I am with you and I hear your prayers.

For all those who are mothers who have children who have fallen away, I am, and shall be, their refuge and the way that will lead them back to God. I am the Mother of Mercy desiring with all my heart to save each and every one of my children. I desire to save you, especially when you are consecrated to my Immaculate Heart. Those who are consecrated to my heart shall never leave. Even when they stray far away, I shall find them for I am the Good Shepherdess seeking the children who are lost and bringing them back to their Father's Kingdom which they share with my Son.

I am the Mother of the Lost Sheep. I am the mother of all children and of all nations, and of the world. God's mercy is bountiful and is grace filled coming through me. When you open your heart, realize first that I am your mother and that I am there for you. In any difficult moments, I am there. Call to me for I hear your prayers.

Look, my Son Jesus is not a just judge. He comes in the form of a child and He's filled with joy, and look! He is with me now in that form as represented in the painting. He is merciful! He is joyous and He loves you so much! He knows the good that I can do when you put your trust in your heavenly mother. Accept me! Love and honor Jesus through me! I wish to be your mother in every way, but like every good mother, I will not force you. I cannot force you to love me or honor my Son. All I can simply do is ask you to return to Him.

I love you so very much, dear children, that it makes no difference to me what race, religion, or creed you may be. As long as you love me and honor my Son and venerate me as Mother of God and Mother of Mercy, I will be there for you. It is through this title that I will save the Church, both the Orthodox Church and the Catholic Church. I bring forth great mercy because it is Jesus' mercy which pours forth from my heart. I cannot judge you. I cannot condemn you. I am simply, dear children, your merciful, loving mother. There exists nothing that is defiled within me. There exists no justice of God because God created me in pure love. I cannot judge you because I am not God. I cannot condemn you because I am not God. I am simply your mother.

I love you, dear children, and I desire to embrace all children, sinners or saints, holy ones or poor ones that are miserable in spirit. I desire to embrace every one of you and place you in my mantle. Let me do so. Just let me do so. Pray, pray, pray and open your hearts to me and to my guidance, for every time you open yourself to me, the Holy Spirit is allowed to act through me and thus is allowed to come to you for I am also the spouse of the Holy Spirit.

I love you. I love each and every one of you and now, as I depart I shall pray over each and every one of you and so shall my Son. (She is holding Jesus in her arm and Jesus' hands are outstretched, like praying over us. Mary can't extend her whole hand because she's holding Jesus, but Jesus is praying over us and her right hand is praying over us, is extended over us.

[a long pause] I take your petitions into my Most Immaculate Heart and I place them in the Sacred Heart of the Divine Infant Jesus. He will give you the answers you seek according to His Will and His Will alone.

Now I shall make the Sign of the Cross again and as I make the Sign of the Cross, I shall depart. I shall depart but remain always with you. And as I make the Sign of the Cross, I shall bless you and everything you have with you. I shall bless everything that is on the altar, by the altar, under the altar, and everything in this room and everything you have with you, including you yourselves, and the flowers I will bless and have blessed and will bless again with the Sign of the Cross, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

I desire also people to know that in order to receive any mercy from God, even if it comes through me, you must be humble. Know also that the title of "The Lily of the Valley" and the "Flower of the Fields" both represent humility. It is only through humility that you can receive the grace of God's mercy. Proud people do not receive it, for that grace only passes them by.

I love you, dear children, and I thank you from the depths of my Most Immaculate Heart for having responded to my call. Now go, my dear little angels, in the great peace, love, and mercy of God Most High. Ad Deum.
