

Message from YOUR MOTHER OF MERCY

To THE WORLD

October 13, 2005 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

My dear little children, praised be Jesus!

My dear children, today I call you as Your Mother of Mercy to more prayer. Dear children, pray, pray, pray! Although this is a special season of grace, it is also a time of darkness, a time when people worship the devil. Halloween is not a joke. This is a season when people need to be on their guard. Do not rejoice in the darkness, but rejoice in God who lives forever and who has the gift of eternal life and eternal waters.

Dear children, I call you to pray against Satan. Realize that He is real. Know that I call you to actively participate in the acts of mercy by prayer and loving and helping one another. I love you, dear children, and I cannot stress the importance of this time that you pray, pray, pray! Please, dear children, pray that the efforts of Satan are destroyed and that what he wishes will not come to pass. God will soon test you through your fruits and through your labors. It is important that you build your faith now and that you surrender to His divine grace and live in His love and in His mercy.

I am Your Mother of Mercy and I desire you to meditate upon this story.

Once upon a time, there was a rich young man who had everything his heart desired who lived in a far away country. One day, a neighboring town was overrun by a new king, and his land and all that he had was taken away. This young man, desperate for earthly riches was now living on the streets. He was talking about his problem with a friend and the young friend took him to an old man in robes. The old man was Satan. The old man asked him, "Would you like to have all the riches in the world and all that your earthly heart desires?" And the young man answered, "Yes." Then Satan, disguised as the old man said, "Then renounce God and worship me and I shall give you all that your heart desires." And the young man said, "So be it."

Then Satan said, "You must also renounce the Mother of God, for she wins many battles for her Son, and she is the one who threatens our plan the most." But the young man could not do it. Even though he desired to renounce me, his heart loved me for I have been nothing but merciful and loving to him and to all my children. So he fled away from Satan. The deal, however, was not broken. He sold his soul for riches.

Meanwhile, he entered in to a chapel to pray. There, I appeared to him holding the Child Jesus. The young man was repentant, and I appeared and said to my Child Jesus, to my sweet little baby boy. "Please forgive this man. Even though he has renounced You, I believe he can be redeemed and saved."

But Jesus, the child, was sad and would not forgive him. Then I put Him on the altar, and kneeling down I said, "Oh, Son of God, my living Son, please forgive him for the sake of me, your mother, who loves you."

Then my Son said unto me, "In the presence of this young man, for you my mother, for your sake, I shall forgive him, and for your sake, I shall restore him to the position that he once had."

There, in the back of the church, was the knight who took his property. He was there and saw the vision too. When the vision ended, he approached him and said, "I have a daughter, and if you desire to have the riches that you once had, marry her, and then when I die, all that I have shall be yours." And the young man was restored to his position through the grace of God and through me, your Mother of Mercy.

Anything and all things are possible in the forgiveness of sins, in the healing of the sick, and the loving of sinners, only if they will return to my Most Compassionate Merciful Immaculate Heart. There is mercy and grace found in my heart. I am the same mother who spoke to you about this in Fatima in 1917. My heart is a merciful heart desiring all humanity to seek refuge in it and to find your salvation through my motherly mercy. I will lead to God.

Remember my promise in Fatima. My Immaculate Heart will be your refuge and the way that will lead you and all souls to God. Though these souls may suffer a great deal, I will never abandon them. They will be like flowers planted by me to adorn His throne. Oh, little children, I am your Mother of Mercy, and my heart is filled with compassion and love and mercy for you. Simply pray when you are in need, doubt, or trouble, and ask my help and intercession, and I will be there, and I will help you. Pray to me with sincere hearts, and I will grant your requests. Pray, pray, pray!

Bless you, my dear children. I take your petitions into my Most Merciful Immaculate Heart and I will present them to the throne of God and with my Son Jesus whom I hold in my arms, (She's blessing us with the Sign of the Cross) in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Now as I make the Sign of the Cross again, I shall depart. I shall depart, dear children, but I shall always remain with you when, and especially when, you pray. Also, as I make the Sign of the Cross again, not only shall I depart but I shall bless you again and all that you have with you. All that's on the altar, by the altar, under the altar, near the altar, and everything in this room, including you yourselves, I am blessing and have blessed again, and will bless again with my Son Jesus, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I love you, my dear little angels. Thank you for responding to my call. Now go in the great peace, love, and mercy of God Most High. Ad Deum.

Copying and distribution of this message is permitted and encouraged as long as nothing is changed, added, or deleted. Other messages of God the Father, Jesus, and Mary can be read at www.movingheartfoundation.com