

Message from OUR LADY OF GARABANDAL

To THE WORLD

September 24, 2005 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

(She would like me to describe what she looks like. She's enveloped in light from head to toe. She radiates light. She has a crown of twelve twinkling stars around her head. Her hair is dark brown, long and wavy, rests on her shoulders. She's not wearing a veil, and her face is significantly exposed. I can see her eyes, her mouth. She has beautiful, blue, piercing eyes. She's just so beautiful! She has a blue mantle, and she has a white dress with a flowered pattern of gold roses. And she wears a tiny little gold belt. It can hardly be seen. The dress goes all the way down and I can't see her feet, but she's resting on a cloud. She has a scapular in her right hand. It's very big and it's brown and it has a white cross sewn on it. I can't see the other side because it sorta dangles and falls around her right arm, and she has the Child Jesus, nine months old. The child has curly blond hair, blue eyes, and is dressed in a dazzling white robe. She says,)

My dear children,

Today I come, not to remind you of the truth and existence of my apparition in Garabandal, Spain, but I instead invite you to live the messages which I have given. Oh my dear children, from 1961 through 1965, I said to you that the cup was filling up, and that it was flowing over and that many priests and many bishops, and many cardinals are on the road to perdition and taking many souls with them, and less and less importance is being given to the Eucharist. Today the message is still the same.

You must read my messages from Garabandal and pray for priests and holy religious orders. Pray that people are truly dedicated to God, that they will live the vows that they take, especially in regard to obedience, poverty, and chastity. Priests must be holy and lead the children closer to the Eucharistic Jesus and to my Immaculate Heart.

Priests should not busy themselves with other things, except that which concerns the church and the souls of my children. So many of my priest sons are involved in political practices which are leading them down the wrong way. Charity for souls is forgotten.

People busy themselves and forget to pay homage to the True Presence of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament. This is such a sorrow for me, your mother. People come into the churches and carry on a conversation right in front of the Presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Jesus is real! He is there, and He is true! He is true to His word that He will be with you until the end of time, if only you will surrender and believe.

The problem with lay people, and priests, and religious is their lack of faith. If they believe firmly, they will have the power to have miracles, for healings to take place. If only they would believe that my Son is real, He would pour such graces upon them that they will be forever filled in this life.

But instead of believing, they don't. They say they believe in my Son, but yet they do not bother to pay any attention to Him. For hours He is left on the altar, alone without a soul to visit Him, not just in Adoration but alone in the tabernacle, day and night. But this is also a prophecy that I gave in Garabandal and which has now come to pass. I said, be careful because there will come a time when people will rarely have reverence and maintain respect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. This time has now arrived.

You must build up your faith now through prayer. You must be willing to understand with your heart that I am real and that my Son is real. You must be willing to accept my Son. Otherwise any graces that we give to you will flow off you, and you become henceforth a rock instead of a sponge. You cannot absorb the graces, but instead, let them splash against you.

My dear children, pray, pray, pray for an open heart. Do not lose time in convincing others of your ways. Our lives should be a constant practice and example to others. As for the miracle that I promised in Garabandal, it will come to pass according to the prophecies which I have given to you. The Church must fall. It will never be completely destroyed and it will never fall to the ground, but it will fall and then when it looks like the Church is about to hit the ground, then the Illumination of Souls will happen and a new springtime.

For now you must pray and wait in joyful anticipation for God's plans to be fulfilled. Have faith, my dear ones, and believe firmly. My last advice to you is this. Go to Eucharistic Adoration. If they do not have Eucharistic Adoration in your church, go to the tabernacle. There, pour out your heart to Jesus. He will give you His peace, and He will give you His healing. Bask in His living peace, and you shall receive strength.

I love you, dear children, and I bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. I love you, and I take your petitions into my heart, and I will present them to God the Father Almighty along with my Son Jesus whom I hold in my arms. Also, dear children, know that I have blessed you, and I will bless you again when I return. For now, thank you for your response to my call.

(St. Michael the Archangel came with Our Lady. St. Michael has this long blond hair and it's wavy, and it's a lot. It comes to the shoulders. He has big blue eyes and a strong face, you can see his cheekbones, and he is very strong and very masculine and well built, with big muscles. The wings are double the size of him. They are white, pure white, and he is surrounded by a halo, a white light above him. And the wings are enormous. It looks like if one day he appears and he's right there before you, if he decided to fly off, boy you'd be on the ground like that. That's how big his wings are, and they're powerful. He had a gold breastplate and belt. The belt was like Mother of Mercy's with the gold and red and a scabbard to hold the sword, but he did not take it out. He has a long white robe after the gold breastplate and it's sorta just fades into nothing and becomes transparent. He has no feet. I've never seen an angel's feet. He was flying to the right of Our Lady and his hands were in prayer.)

Copying and distribution of this message is permitted and encouraged as long as nothing is changed, added, or deleted. Other messages of God the Father, Jesus, and Mary can be read at www.movingheartfoundation.com