

Message (2) from YOUR MOTHER OF MERCY

To THE WORLD

August 13, 2005 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

(As Mary, Our Lady of Mercy finished her first message, St. Joseph appeared and handed her the Child Jesus so she is giving this messages as Our Mother of Mercy.)

My dear little children, praised be Jesus!

My dear children, today I wish to call you and all sinners back to God! Realize, little children, that God is merciful and that He loves you all very much. I am the Good Shepherdess and I have come to lead the lost sheep back to God. This title is very similar to my Son's title of the Good Shepherd. Within the Good Shepherdess, I am Your Mother of Mercy for I seek after the lost sheep of God to return them to Him.

Sin is the cause of separation from God. That is why, little children, I call you to conversion and to Confession. When you confess your sins and are truly forgiven, God forgives you, and great healing happens within your soul. Draw closer back to God and realize that He is merciful. It was in the act of Jesus becoming a child, or being human, that He became most merciful. It was in this one act of Him becoming human that God's mercy abounds in humans.

Look at Jesus, not just as divine, but yet fully human, clothed in the flesh. He suffered much and in the same way, little ones, as you do. He suffered temptation and overcame the world. So too, little children, can you overcome the world and temptation by looking to Jesus as your hope and your salvation. He is fully human, yet fully divine. That is why, little children, in His humanness are you made perfect. God, in His humanness, became man, and it is in His humanness that He is merciful. He is merciful because He is human. That is why, little children, look always to Him as merciful, because He is human.

I love you, little children, and I also ask you to do the Will of God and to look for hope. Little children, trust in Jesus more and realize that if you want your prayers answered, you should always do the Will of God and then if it is God's Will, your prayers will be answered.

Jesus loves you and He desires you to trust in His mercy more, and He desires you to know that it is in fulfilling the Will of God that you will receive answers to your prayers if it is God's Will. Trust in Jesus! Praise Him for the good in your life, and pray for the love and mercy that He continues to shower upon you.

But most importantly, little children, accept God's Will for you in all circumstances, and if you desire also prayers to be answered, I ask you to trust in Jesus more and praise Him, even for the little things, and the big things. Make an act of faith and thank Him for your prayers being answered even before they come to pass. In this way, you show Jesus that you believe in Him and that you trust Him. Do the Will of God, children, and trust in Jesus. He is merciful because He is human, and I am the Good Shepherdess and the Mother of Mercy who desires to lead all souls back to God.

I love you, little children, and bless you in the name of Jesus who in His great mercy of being human blesses you again, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. Now as I depart, I shall bless everything you have with you, everything that's on the altar, by the altar, under the altar, everything in this room including you yourselves I am blessing and have blessed again with the Sign of the Cross, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. As I make the Sign of the Cross again, I shall depart. I shall depart, dear children, but shall remain always with you whenever you pray.

Please remember to thank my Son for allowing me to come and to be with you in a special way. And remember, little children, if you desire your prayers to be answered, do the Will of God and then accept God's answers according to His Will and make an act of faith by trusting Jesus that He seeks only good for you in your life. Now I shall say I love you, my dear little children, and thank you for having responded to my call. Go in the great peace, love, and mercy of God Most High. Ad Deum.
