

Message from JESUS, LORD AND LOVER OF THE DIVINE WILL
To THE WORLD

April 13, 2006 through Chris Curtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

(He is here! Jesus is here, and there's St. Joseph! He's right beside Him. I guess that would be on my left, right there, oh [a long pause while Jesus speaks privately to Chris] He says.)

My dear and beloved children of My Father's earth,

Today, I desire to come among you with My father, St. Joseph, to tell you that I love you, and I come with My father because he is My stepfather and he also symbolizes the Father's love for all of humanity. For all those who are fathers, look to these two fathers – God the Father and My father, St. Joseph, and they will help you. Even those who are foster fathers, he will help you.

Today, however, I desire, with My father, to tell you about the Divine Mercy and about the Divine Will, for today, I am Jesus, Lord and Lover of the Divine Will. Before I tell you about Divine Mercy and Divine Will, I desire to tell you that next year shall be My last appearance under this title, under Jesus, Lord and Lover of the Divine Will. I will continue to come every year until My Father no longer permits Me, but next year will be the last time I will appear under this title.

Now, My little ones, I desire you to understand that I desire you to live in the Divine Will; however, some of you will never get that opportunity. Most of you will never get that opportunity because you cannot achieve living in the Divine Will without My Divine Mercy. Everything is subject unto My Will and unto My Mercy, for when I desired, with My Father, to create man, We had to have a fitting, living place for man to dwell, so out of Our mercy, we had to create the earth, so mercy always leads to will, for it is an act of the will which leads to mercy, and it is mercy that leads you to the Divine Will. You cannot separate them from each other for both are interrelated and linked together.

My mother was fully human, fully human from her conception, and all her life she was fully human, yet she was blessed and she was holy. God sanctified her womb, and thus I dwelt inside through her Immaculate Heart. I desire to point out first that she was human and, second, that the only way, even for her, who was a creature of God, to sustain the Son of God, was mercy itself, for it was an act of mercy that I dwelt in her womb, not for one day, not for two weeks. For nine months I enclosed Myself in darkness within the flesh of My mother. There I saw no light but developed through her maternal love that she had for Me since the beginning, before she conceived Me.

It is God's mercy that I came into the world, My mercy, to save you and redeem souls. Therefore, you cannot live in the Divine Will without mercy. Therefore, Divine Mercy is always given to those who desire to live in the Divine Will. If you fall, I am there. My mercy I give freely and will continue to give freely to lift you up and raise you to a height of understanding that your human self cannot imagine, but I will only do this first through an act of Divine Mercy. Therefore I desire that everyone who wishes to live in the Divine Will surrender themselves to My Divine Mercy and to My mother's mercy, for she comes here under the title, Mother of Mercy. She will lead you to Me, and I will lead you to the Father and to His Divine Will. →

I love you, My little ones, and desire you to receive mercy because it is through giving and receiving mercy that you will be purified and made ready to be able to receive all the gifts of God's Divine Will. My mercy I give to you freely, but it is up to you to receive it or to walk away.

I always point to My mother and to St. Joseph who I have here with Me. This is how I desire you to develop within the Divine Will, through Divine Mercy. Look, he was conceived with sin. He was originally a human being like everyone. He grew up and became holy. He became holy through the grace of God, and thus through his holy sanctity, he was able to marry My mother because she was blessed and holy among all women. Now, when she had Me, and My mother and I lived in perfect union within the Divine Will, St. Joseph had no choice but to conform, so to speak. So over time, he learned to live in the Divine Will, and the sanctifying grace of mercy was given to him, so at the end of his life, he lived in complete Divine Will, and he was without sin. Yes, he was conceived with sin, but toward the end of his life, he was without sin. (He smiles and says,) but yet, how can he not be, in the presence of your Savior and His Most Holy Mother?

So that is what I wish for you, My little ones, to grow in sanctity and holiness, and then receive Divine Mercy and grow in the grace of God's Divine Will. I tell you, if you do this, towards the end of your life, you will not be free, without sin, but you will be freely living in the Divine Will

And now, My dear children, I bless you with My father, St. Joseph, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. I take your petitions into My Most Sacred Heart and I will lay them also at My Father's throne. I desire you to know that as I make the Sign of the Cross again, I shall bless you and everything you have with you, and I will depart to My Father who has sent Me. And please, have a great love and devotion to St. Joseph, for he is the model I wish for all people to grow up into the Divine Will, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.
