

Message from JESUS OF MERCY
To THE WORLD

December 24, 2007 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

(I see St. Gabriel, St. Raphael, St. Michael the Archangel – they're all here and they have accompanied our Lord. Our Lord Jesus is here, and He is dressed all in gold, and He is thirty years old. He's the man but He's all dressed in gold and white. There's, Oh, there's so much light! He's smiling, oh, His eyes. Our Lord says,)

My dear and beloved children of My Father's earth,
I thank you for gathering together to pray and for being with Me on this most holy night, when I, your Lord, your God, and your Savior shall be born unto you. I love you all so much that I could not stay away. I have to come to reveal to you My most precious gem, My most precious love, that which has given to Me life, My mother.

This Christmas Eve, I wish to draw you closer to her. She is the fountain of pure grace and pure delight and love. My little ones, I could stand here and tell you how I am part of her, and how she formed Me, and how she and I are one, but nothing I say will ever make such an impact on you as by simply saying, she is your mother also. She gave birth to Me, and at the foot of My Cross, I gave her to all of you, each and every one of you. You will never understand the love that My mother has for you in being your mother also. She calls you day after day to prayer, repentance, and a life filled with holiness and blessing.

Through her I am giving you also My mercy and love. How many times have I said this and yet, tonight, it is so important that you come to embrace My words. My mother is your mother in every sense of the word. She loves you, she prays for you, she cares for you, she watches not only your spiritual growth and your spiritual lives, but she watches over your physical body as well. She is truly your mother. Embrace her! Embrace her because she is all good and loving and because there is nothing in her that is judgmental. She is nothing but mother. She is nothing but mother to all of you.

My words are not enough. You have to form, and have a devotion to Our Lady, to your mother, to My mother, on your own terms. Tonight I simply ask you to thank My father for choosing her to be not only My mother, but the world's mother. One day the world will know the great companion and loving mother that it has in Mary. Bless you, my little ones, in My most holy name,- Emmanuel, Jesus, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

I give you My peace. My peace I leave with you, but you will always be able to find My peace also through My mother. My mother will come during the Divine Mercy (Chaplet).

(He's disappearing. He's moving into the light and He's fading away, but the angels are singing. They're singing "Hallelujah!" You can hear them but I'm not going to sing like them because I can't. They're gone.)
