

Message (2) from MOTHER OF MERCY

To THE WORLD

April 13, 2007 through Chris Curtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

My dear little children, praised be Jesus!

My dear children, I come on this anniversary day to invite you, not only to God's mercy and to Jesus' mercy, but to my most loving, motherly mercy which flows out from the seven wounds of my Immaculate Heart. Oh, dear children, truly there is great joy and mercy from my heart. I am your mother and no mercy can be accomplished without the greatest sword of sadness, sorrow and pain. I could not be your Mother of Mercy if I did not stand at the Cross. I could not be your most compassionate, merciful mother without the seven swords that pierced my heart. Remember the prophecy of Simeon - and behold a sword shall pierce your heart as well so that the thoughts of many hearts and souls may be revealed.

I ask you to pray the seven sorrows of me, your mother, because it is through these sorrows, through my sorrowful passion that you become aware of my compassionate, merciful heart. The seven swords pierced my heart in order to open up my motherly fountain even more. This fountain, dear children, is my Immaculate Heart! You receive all the graces, love, and mercy that you need when you pray your Rosary and consecrate yourselves to my Immaculate Heart.

Oh, dear children, sorrow is the road that will lead you to mercy, because in sorrow and hardships, you become aware of other people's sorrow and hardships. Therefore you can apply what you have learned and your own compassion to the situation. That is why mercy can never be outdone by sorrow because through your sorrows, God's mercy shall be glorified. I am your Mother of Mercy because of my sorrows.

I desire you to seek refuge in my heart and for you to understand once and for all that you receive double the mercy from my Immaculate Heart. One, because I am a creature, God had to give to me mercy. Two, it was from my heart that the three drops of blood came forth to form the body and heart of my Son Jesus. His heart is my heart. Therefore, you receive Jesus' mercy through me, and you receive my motherly, loving mercy - two mercies, two fountains of mercy coming forth from my heart. Blessed are those who seek refuge in my Immaculate Heart, for even though they shall suffer great sorrows, as I said in Fatima, I shall never abandon them. My Immaculate Sorrowful Merciful Heart will be their refuge and the way that will lead them to God. Dear children, let my Immaculate Heart be your refuge. Seek me, call to me in times of trial and tribulations, and I shall come.

Oh, dear children, Satan fears me, and that is why there is so much attack against me and my Church at this present moment, because my children are devoted to my loving heart. Oh, my little ones, Satan is afraid of me and of the Rosary. Where I am present, Satan flees! Because I am your Mother of Mercy and the Most Merciful Mother of God, call to me, dear children, in the name of Jesus to defend you, and I shall come along with the three archangels and my spouse, St. Joseph, who is the protector of all those who are chaste in heart!

I love you, dear children, and leave you this word of advice – If you do not humble yourself and if you do not have humble hearts, you will never, never understand the love and mercy and compassion that I have for you. Let nothing hinder you from being little. Humble yourself to the lowest position so that God may be all in you and that I may love you. Bless you, my dear children, bless you with the graces from my Immaculate Heart. (There's her Immaculate Heart! She says,)

See, look! There are no more swords, there are just rays of light coming forth from my heart. (Yes, I see, there are nothing but rays coming forth from where the swords pierced her.) I love you, dear children, and I bless you. I take your petitions into my Most Loving Immaculate Heart. Now as I bless you, I shall bless all that is here, all that is on the altar, under the altar, everything in this room, including you yourselves, I am blessing, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Now as I shall make the Sign of the Cross again, I shall depart, dear children, but I shall always be with you all when, and especially when, you pray. Thank you for responding to my call.

(in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.) Now go, my dear little children in the great peace, joy, love, and mercy of God Most High. Ad Deum.
