

Message from ST. JOSEPH
TO THE WORLD

December 2, 2008 through Chris Curtis, a visionary in Maryland, U.S.A.

(St. Joseph is here and he's making a descent. He's dressed all in gold. The sash that was green is now gold. The white robe is pure gold, and the cape which is usually pure white is now just pure gold, and there are two angels, one on the left, one on the right, and they're both dressed the same, in pure gold, and they are little angels. They're not angel faces, they're baby angels. There's a gold light all around them. His eyes are just sparkling! He says,)

Give praise and glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit who has allowed me to be here with you in an ever special way!

My dear little ones,

First I wish to extend to you my great thanks for you and for all of you for gathering and for being with me here today as my last appearance occurs.

My little ones, I have repeatedly stressed the importance of the first five Wednesdays. I've repeatedly expressed to you the devotion to my Most Chaste Heart regarding its promises and the painting itself. My little ones, now is the time for you to know and believe firmly that my Most Chaste and Pure Heart gives to you abundant graces.

You are all called to be disciples of my Most Chaste Heart through prayer and surrendering to the Will of the Father. The only way that I lived this life was through purity and through the grace given to me by the Father, by the Son, and by your most holy mother. They gave to me in great abundance graces to continue on in my long and sorrowful journey. Know that it was a joyful as well as sorrowful journey, one filled with joy and grace from the moment of my first visitation of the angel to my last breath of life. It was sorrow mingled with great joy, sorrow over having to see the suffering of the mother and the Child, and sorrow over the loss of so many souls and their offenses against God, and joy in beholding the Creator in fully human and yet fully divine form.

Today, my little ones, I invite you to walk the journey of faith. My little Foster Son Jesus is with you. Believe and know that He extends graces to you through my Most Chaste Heart. Pick up the heavy burden of the Cross and begin your journey of faith by prayer. Surrender yourselves to my protection, and it will be given to you. I protect all souls that consecrate themselves to my heart, all true, chaste souls whose hearts and souls are pure before God. This does not mean that it does not include those who are married. Those who are married and have a pure and chaste heart also are protected under my heart and grace of God.

Blessed are those who receive and understand that the message I deliver is one of conversion and turning all hearts to the hHeart of God. Whose heart do I desire to turn to God? Little children, yours. Who is God? The one, and only one in full human and divine form, Jesus, who suffered and died for you. My heart is simply an echo of the graces given by God and given to you through this devotion. It is a devotion to call you to conversion and peace. Know that my intercession will always be extended to those who believe and those who don't believe as long as they surrender themselves and give themselves completely to my Most Chaste Heart. The blessing of my Most Chaste Heart is upon you. (He's pulling something out from his chest. His Most Chaste Heart! He's blessing us with his Most Chaste Heart, with the Sign of the Cross. He's making it with his heart, like so, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.)

Know the flames which extend from my heart is the flame of the passion of love from the Holy Spirit. This flame consumed my heart unto the uttermost moments of my death. The three lilies signify purity, chastity, and above all, humility in love. Blessed are those who receive these virtues and live them.

Thank you, my little ones, for your response to His call and for listening to my words. Though you do not see me, I extend to you my graces and my love. Again, blessed are those who do not see yet who believe. Now, I shall bless you again with the Sign of the Cross, and I shall depart. Know that I shall be forever with all God's children who pray, who consecrate themselves to my Most Chaste Heart. I am with you and I will protect you. Believe! I bless you now, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.
