

Message from MOTHER OF MERCY

To THE WORLD

April 13, 2008 through Chris Courtis, a visionary in Maryland, USA

(She wants me to describe what she looks like. She's our Mother of Mercy. She has a blue mantle on. She's holding the Child Jesus. She's dressed the same way as in the painting. She's just beautiful! The angels are around her, and there are saints. I see St. Joseph to the right, my right. She says,)

Praised be Jesus! I am Our Lady, Mother of Mercy.

I

My dear children,

I greet you with the love, mercy, and peace of my Son Jesus. Thank you for coming, for praying on this, the 8th anniversary of my appearances here. The whole heavenly court, angels and saints included, are here present to greet you. This day I am giving to you special graces. Open your hearts to receive the graces that my Son and I desire to give each and every one of you. On this anniversary day, I come with the splendor of the heavenly court once again to thank you and to invite you back to God.

God's way is one of prayer, love, mercy, conversion, and peace. It takes sacrifices to reach my Son. Think of each small sacrifice as a step to Heaven and to your own conversion and peace. I extend to you the healing love of my Son, and I bless you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

My dear children,

I come to you here especially in America to ask you to amend your ways. Little children, I have warned you of disasters, famines, drought, floods, hurricanes, and epidemics of every kind. In my last message, I said you are not listening. How can America, and the world for that matter, say they are listening to my messages when they have yet to respond and to live them? I am sorry from my Immaculate Heart to have to tell you these things. I have warned you, and I continue to warn you and America to amend its ways and to return to God. It is the responsibility of each person to seek the love and mercy of God and to return in faith to my Lord and Savior.

Pray, pray very much for your nation which shall suffer the most. Through this suffering, I shall be with The United States. It shall be purified, and it shall once again take its rightful place in my Immaculate Heart. I am with you, dear children, do not fear!

I desire your hearts in prayer. Pray from your hearts. Let me know that they are open by your prayers. When you open your heart, I'm able to be present in a special way and grace you with many blessings and graces from God. Pray the Rosary and make more sacrifices.

America has yet to see the power of God's justice. Please pray, dear children, and amend your ways. I am praying for you for peace and conversion. Please respond through your prayers and sacrifices. And now, my final message – for today. (She's smiling.) →

My dear little children, praised be Jesus!

My dear children,

I come as the Mother of Mercy to lead all souls back to God. So often you've heard my Son speak of me as the key. I desire to explain to you what this means. First I must take you back to the Divine Mercy vision. Jesus stood, and behind Him was a door. That door is the door to His divine mercy. Now in this age, in this time, there is only one person who can open the door to God's mercy, and it is I, your heavenly mother. I am the key to that door from which graces and mercy flow. You ask, "How am I the key?" I say to you, I am your key to opening Jesus' divine mercy through my love, through my mercy, and through my messages, which if the world lives, they will find the road to conversion and peace.

I am with you on your journey to strengthen you so that the door may be open. I am your consolation, your joy, and the key to God's mercy. Receive His mercy coming through me. Am I not your mother? Am I not here with you? Am I not your delight and your joy? All those who seek my motherly heart shall find it, and they shall find that I am truly every man's and woman's mother, no matter what race or religion. Yes, as the key, I can open the door to God's mercy to anyone I choose. Therefore, dear children, be sure that I open the door to God's mercy and grace to everyone – Protestants, Lutherans, Muslims, Jews, Hindus, any religion. I am their mother. As the Mother of Mercy, it is my delight and joy to lead you to Jesus, but this does not mean that you must belong to the Catholic Church in order to be saved. If one applies the law of God in his everyday life, he will find salvation. I desire also to be present to you in a special way through your prayers. Continue to pray and firmly believe, and the door of God's mercy will be opened to you.

I bless you, my little ones, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. I take your petitions into my heart and will present them to God the Father. I thank you for all your prayers and sacrifices, and ask you to continue to do the same. I am the Mother of Mercy for all peoples, nations, and religions.

Now I shall make the Sign of the Cross again. As I make the Sign of the Cross again, I shall depart. I shall depart, dear children, but remain with you always when, and especially when, you pray. Please know that as I make the Sign of the Cross again, not only shall I bless you, but I shall bless everything in this room, everything you have on, and everything that's on the altar, by the altar, and under the altar, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen. Thank you for your response to my call. Go in the great peace, love, and mercy of God Most High. Ad Deum.
