

Message from OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY OF FATIMA
To THE WORLD
December 2, 2008

I am Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima.

My dear children,

I thank you in the tenderness of my Immaculate Heart that you have gathered here with me today and are praying. Your love and your prayers console my Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart. My dear children, today with all earnesty do I wish to call you to the devotion to my Immaculate Heart. My dear children, my heart is grievously offended by the sins of ungrateful souls all over the world. My Immaculate Heart is also crowned with thorns. These thorns are piercing my heart as well. (I see drops of blood coming from the heart.) The sins of mankind are growing in excess, and they are causing my heart great pain.

Little children, please think of me more often in your life. Think of how much I suffer every time you commit sins and every time someone shows hatred to Jesus or to me. Little children, think of my pains that I endure. Truly, when you offend my Son, you offend me. That is why I call you also to make the first Saturday devotions to my Immaculate Heart. Little children, make reparations for the sins committed against my sorrowful yet merciful Immaculate Heart. When my heart begins to heal, little children, God's heart also begins to heal, my Son's Cross becomes lighter, and He in turn will grace you with a period of peace that the world has yet to experience. Although I reveal all this to you, little children, and ask you to remember me in your sorrows, it is also important that I come among you to deliver another urgent message.

My dear little children,

Please, you must stop offending God! Little children, as the world grows farther and farther apart from God, your faith in my Son and me will be greatly tested. Already the enemy has been working hard to destroy your faith, your hope in the future, and even the fact that God truly loves you. Little children, pray and sacrifice as you never have before. Surrender to my Son, trust in His care, trust in divine providence. All will be accomplished in my Son's time.

Little children, you worry too much about the future and what the world will suffer. I must tell you that I am here to give you peace, but you must accept God. The world's cross grows ever greater, and men's sorrow is deeply hurting me. I love you, little children, and at all cost I am praying that you do not lose your souls. It is important to me that as much as you recognize me as the Mother of God, you recognize me as the Mother of the Church. Return to church! Return to praying the Rosary! Return to Mass! Return to Holy Scripture! Return to Confession, and make amends for the sins of the world!

Peace will come but it will not be for awhile for men have so seriously disobeyed God that even though this is a time of grace, it is also the time in which men must be purged to make reparation for their sins and for the coming Era of Peace which will come as I have promised in Fatima.

I love you, little children, and all this will take time. God's promises and mine never fade although they do take time. I am moving men's hearts but men's hearts must also realize that if they truly repent, they will receive grace and forgiveness for their sins, but it is their free will. Pray and make many sacrifices for many souls are on their way to hell. My message remains the same as in Fatima, Portugal, in 1917. You must stop offending God!

I love you, little children, and I bless you. My warnings have been given to you. Pray, pray, pray, and make the First Saturdays. Now I shall bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

(The light is enveloping her. The light has engulfed her. I can't see her. The light is dimming. The light is slowly dimming. She's our Mother of Mercy!) [see next message].
